

Press Release – September 29th, 2008

The innovative and uplifting 'All of the Above' will be performed live on 25th of October – 2008 at the Inn on the Green (3 Thorpe Close W10 5XL) at 7:30 pm. Tickets are £10, £8 in advance.

Brainchild of Tony Lowe, 'All of the Above' is a live music event to stir the soul and the senses.

An intense journey of enlightenment through the colour spectrum – 'All of the Above' was balloted for 8 awards in the 2007 Grammys.

The concept is designed for the benefit of those less fortunate and to further an awareness of all social and environmental causes. All proceeds will be donated to Action Aid's 'Bollocks to Poverty'.

On stage with Tony Lowe will be co-writer and vocalist Alison Fleming, flying in from the US, Bassist Steve Gee, Keyboard player Poppy Gonzalez and drummer Buj Stapley. Support, Lee Harris and River Styx.

“Stunning and powerful...music from the heart”

To purchase tickets: www.tonylowe.com or call 07974-759-760.

Notes to editor:

1. For more information on the Bollocks to Poverty tour and ActionAid contact Rebecca Barnes on 020 7561 7646 rebecca.barnes@actionaid.org

2. Bollocks to Poverty is part of ActionAid, an international charity that works in the world's poorest countries in Africa, Asia and Latin America.

“ActionAid doesn't just hand out aid; we give people the power and resources to end their own poverty for good by helping the world's poorest people speak to the world's most powerful and demand their right to food, education, and healthcare.” www.actionaid.org.uk

3. To contact Tony Lowe please call 07974-759-768 or email him at tonylowe@uk2.net